

VINCENT CUSHING, OFM STUDENT SERVICE AWARD

THE VINCENT CUSHING, OFM STUDENT SERVICE AWARD is an annual honor awarded by the Student Senate to one of the Washington Theological Union's graduating degree or certificate students. The recipient of this award is someone who has made an exceptional contribution to the community life of the Union. The person honored is someone who has exhibited one or more of the following qualities:

|                   |                                    |
|-------------------|------------------------------------|
| Hospitality       | Generosity with time and/or talent |
| Volunteerism      | Creativity                         |
| Community builder | Professionalism                    |

Nominations for this award are being solicited from the entire Union community. Students, staff, and faculty are all encouraged to nominate someone from the list of GRADUATING STUDENTS (see reverse of this form). The selection committee will review all nominations proposed and select the award recipient. The recipient of this award will be announced at the graduation ceremony in May.

NOMINATIONS CLOSE AT 10 PM ON MONDAY, APRIL 12TH, 2010.
